

Erb Institute Options to Support Company Projects

PROJECT TYPE	STUDENT TYPE	DURATION/LOCATION	TIMING	COST
Ross MAP Project	Team of 4-5 Ross 1st-year MBA students, possibly including Erb MBA/MS students	Full-time 7 weeks, onsite for 2-5 weeks	Next opportunity Mar.-Apr. (Project proposals due Nov. 2018)	Travel and living expenses; no salary/stipend
School for Environment and Sustainability (SEAS) Master's Practicum	Team of 1-2 MS students, including Erb MBA/MS students	Off-site, part-time research 6-12 months (with intro and/or final presentation on-site)	Next opportunity to begin in Jan. 2019 (Project proposals due Dec. 2018)	Travel expenses; no salary/stipend
School for Environment and Sustainability (SEAS) Master's Project	Team of 4-6 MS students, including Erb MBA/MS students	Off-site, part-time research 12-18 months (with intro and/or final presentation on-site)	Next opportunity to begin in Jan. 2019 (Project proposals due Dec. 2018)	Travel and reasonable project expenses; no salary/stipend
Erb Institute Summer Intern	Individual dual-degree MBA/MS students from Ross Business School and School for Environment and Sustainability	On-site, full-time for 10-14 weeks during summer	Next opportunity May-Aug. 2018; hiring window is Oct. 2017 - March 2018	Average salary $12,000-$20,000 USD per student
Erb Institute "Impact Projects"	1-4 Erb students that design and carry out an independent project	Short term projects, can include extension of internship, curricular experiences, entrepreneurial ventures, field-based opportunities or the development and implementation of tools	Ongoing, can vary from 1 week to 1 year	Erb Institute will support travel; no stipend/salary
Erb Partnership Projects	Off-site, part-time research, consulting or project support	1 week to 1 year	Rolling	Approved project expenses; stipends often included